

CALIFORNIA WRITERS CLUB

CWC South Region Report for Central Board meeting
31 January 2016, Holiday Inn Express, Oakland

The CWC South region meets two or three times a year in Pasadena. We hold our next meeting in a few weeks.

We will participate in the Riverside Dickens Festival in February, representing the California Writers Club.

We maintain the website socialwritersshowcase.com and change contents monthly.

If we have unspent funds in our annual allotment from the CWC at the end of the CWC fiscal year, we will distribute them to southern branches in the form of mini-grants (branches propose joint projects with local writing-related nonprofits and CWC South reps vote to select recipient branches).

Respectfully submitted,
Donna McCrohan Rosenthal,
Chair, CWC South
